Great Grandfather Todd is supposed to have made several trips to America and visited several eastern cities before finally bringing the family to live in this country. They arrived August 1, 1838 at Philadelphia on the ship, Jane Roos. Great Grandfather's occupation was listed as a baker.

While living in Philadelphia, another son was born:

Sometime after that, the family moved to St. Louis, where they were living in 1840-41 at the corner of 7th and Greene Streets; in 1842 at 119 North 5th Street and in 1845 at S. and J. Turner's. THE CORR FAMILY

The other half of our grandparents of course, was Nancy Clare Corr. Her father James Corr, was born February 16, 1816 and died October 10, 1868. He seems to have come to this country from Ireland through New Orleans but records proving this fact have never been found. He was married to Maria Bolen, here again it is not known if she came from Ireland with him or if they were married in this country. However one son James was born in New Orleans on May 30, 1838. James served in the Civil War and died September 21, 1865 while in service. He is buried in a military cemetery in Nashville, Tennessee.

Other children of this marriage:

Bridget, born August 31, 1840 and died July 5, 1860
she was married to William Roper

Thomas, born August 29, 1844 and died May 8, 1925
he was married September 17, 1867 to Mary Hayes Adams

Mary A., born August 29, 1845 and died May 10, 1866
she married Wilson Stilley

Patrick, born June 21, 1847 and died April 9, 1938

Maria Corr died some time after 1847 but the date is unknown. If she is buried in Todd's Mill Cemetery where James is buried, the grave is not marked.

James Corr then married Mary Ritchie (Ritcheson) who is buried in an unmarked grave in Old Concord Cemetery.

To this marriage was born;

Nora Rachael, born November 25, 1850 and died in 1923
she married Marion Hutchings November 14, 1872

Maria, born April 1, 1857
married to W. J. Benedict

John, born August 11, 1854 and died November 20, 1928
he was married to Martha Reisinger, April 23, 1880

Nancy, born March 7, 1860 and died June 4, 1954
she married Thomas Todd, January 10, 1878.
